

Please keep freedom of speech an option for both political parties and people from all walks of life. The media is to report the news from an unbiased point of view and so let it be so. I am tired of reading only right wing hard liners point of view and ask that you keep it diversified or it will turn people off to the media and drive them to the Internet only.

Thank you. Please keep in mind that your readers are intelligent and come from all walks of life!